Helen Marie Hulcher

To the one whose hand has led us
  Through our years at senior high,
We proudly dedicate this book
  In which fond memories lie.

PROPERTY OF
THE LIBRARY OF VIRGINIA
RICHMOND, VA

FOREWORD

In this thirty-seventh volume
  Of the yearly MARSHALLITE,
We have aimed to keep a record
  Of your high school days in sight.

As the years go fleeting onward,
  All you've learned and all you've done
Will come back, we hope, with pleasure,
  As you meet your friends—each one.

If this book should then inspire you
  To high aims and great success,
The pupils who planned its pages
  Are rewarded through happiness.

. . . Massive columns and majestic trees foretell John Marshall's proud traditions

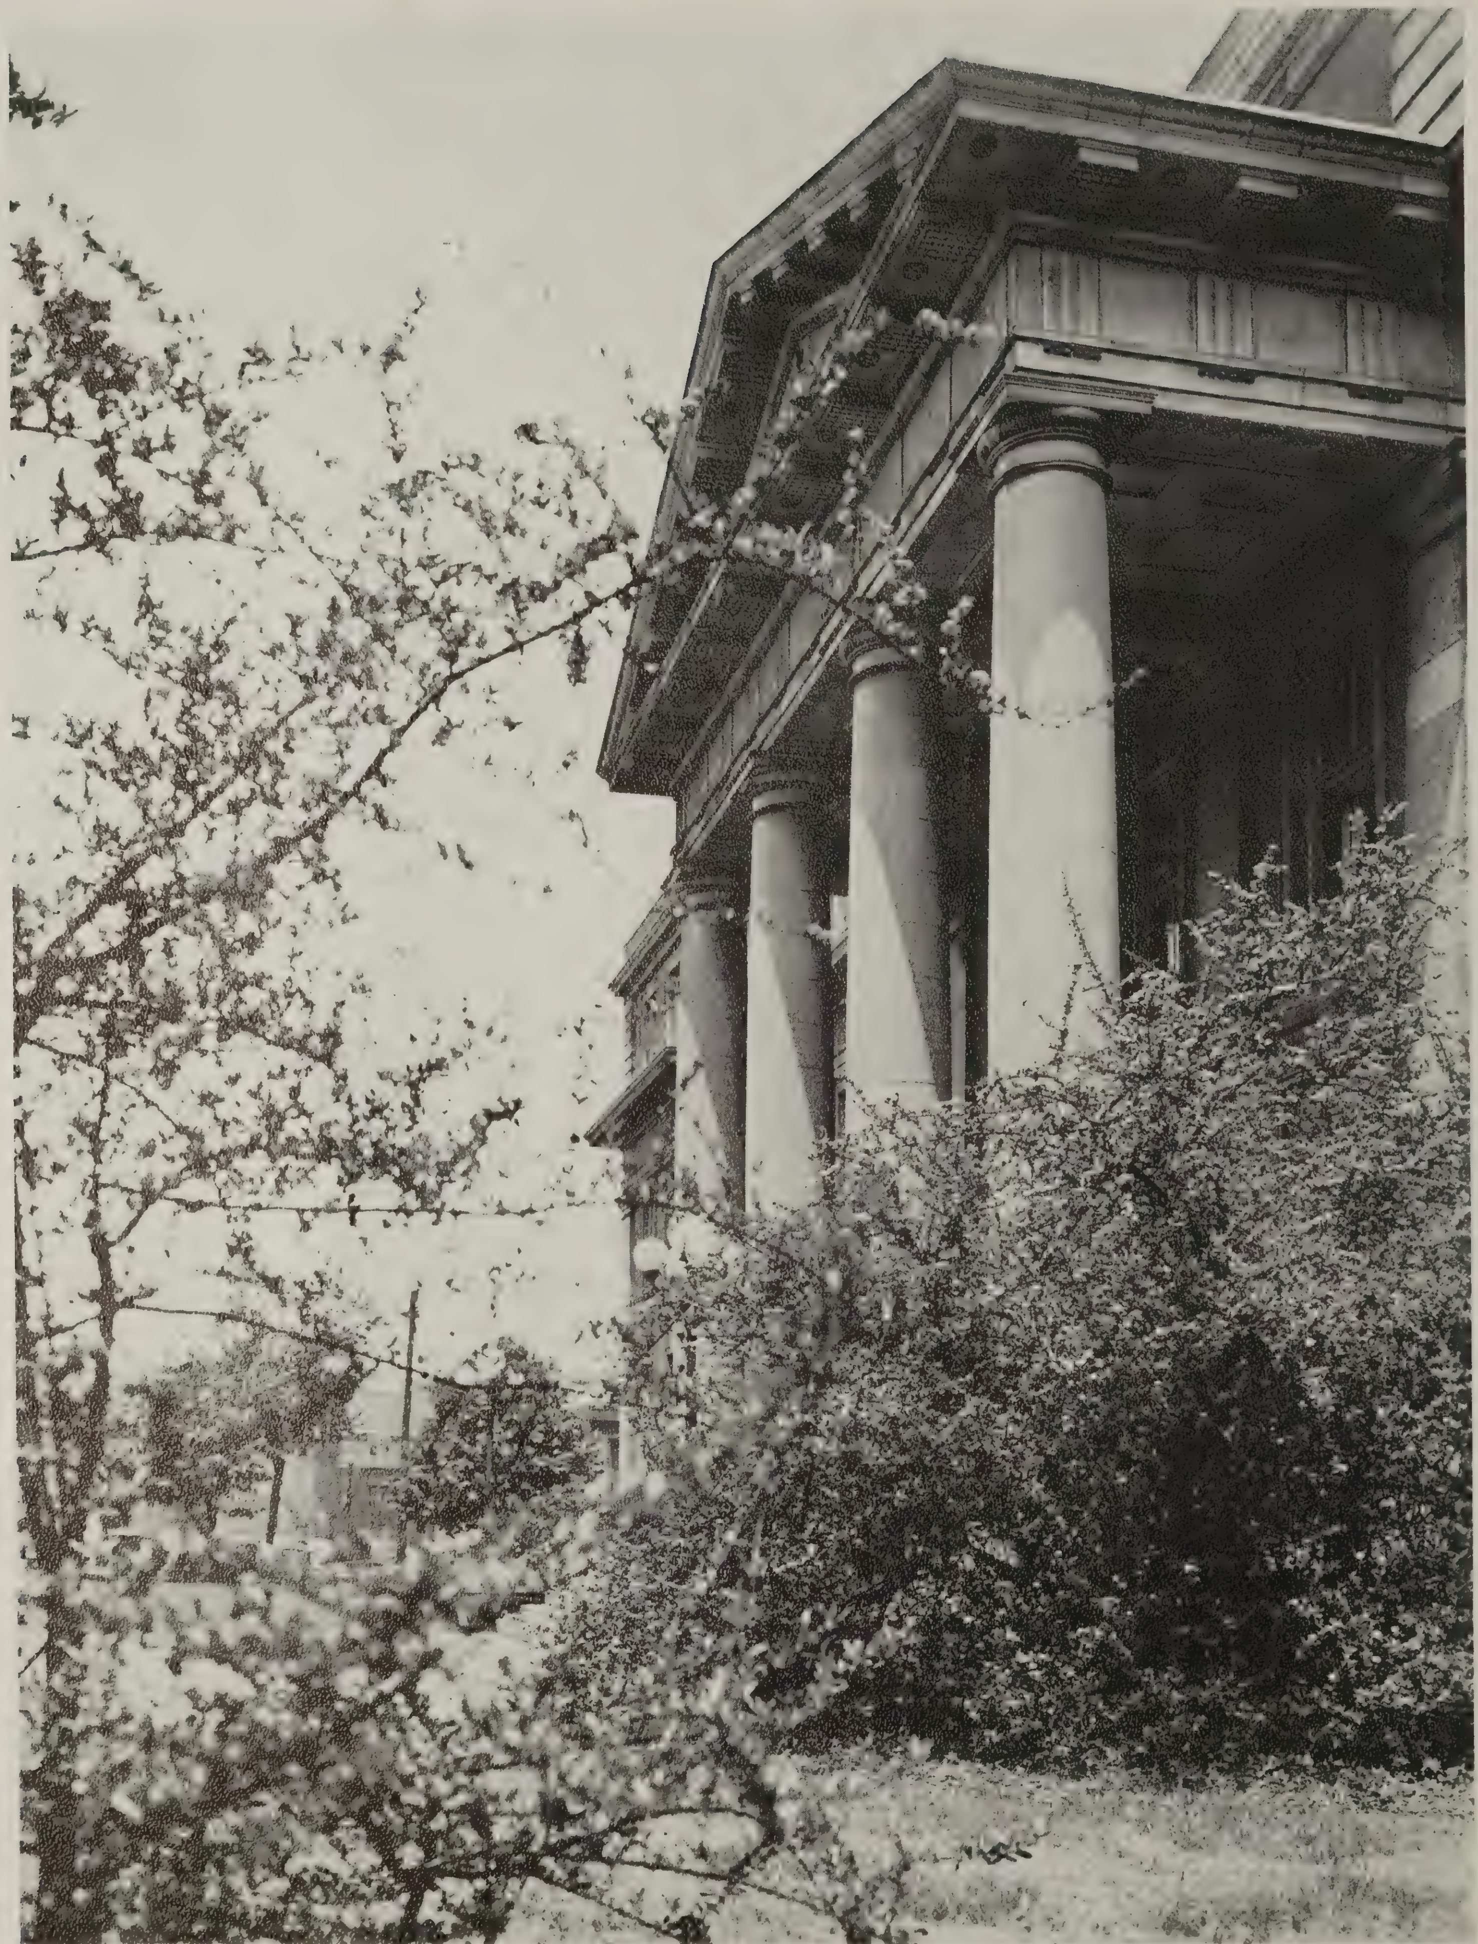
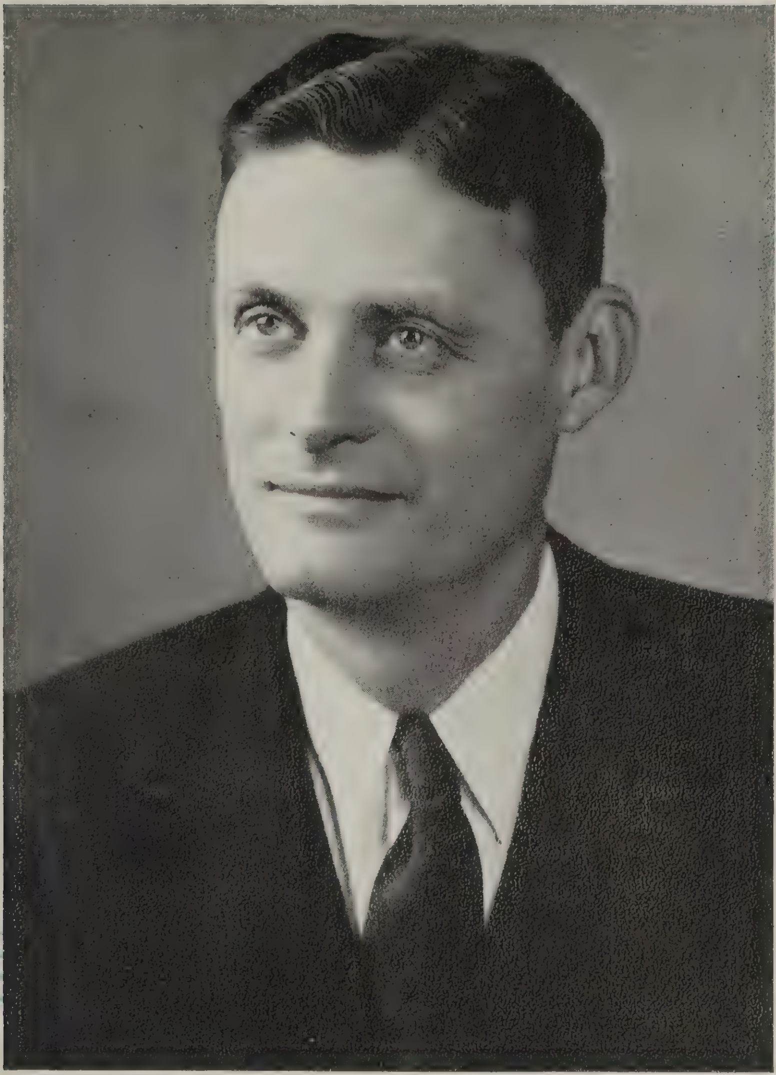
. . . Nature joins John Marshall and George Wythe with a white carpet of velvety snow



. . . Budding trees and an early spring envelop John Marshall in their friendly warmth



Dr. Fred B. Dixon

Principal

B.A., M.A., PH.D., UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI
COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

You have come to lead us onward
With a kind and loving heart,
To a future filled with gladness,
And a will to do your part.

Floyd E. Fowlkes
Assistant Principal
M.A., Columbia University

February Graduation, 1947

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

WITH the beginning of a new term, come new ideas. This year in place of one sponsor, each class had two counselors to advise the students in selecting their subjects, to help them with their problems, and to sponsor all of the class's activities. At the first senior assembly our counselors, Miss Thelma Keene and Mr. William W. Brock, were introduced to us; and our class was officially launched.

A few weeks later candidates for offices were introduced at a special assembly. An exciting election followed which resulted in the choice of Pat Woods as president, Bette Davis, as vice-president, Nell McGehee as secretary, and Doris Luck as treasurer. Nell McGehee has served as the secretary for her class every year she has been at John Marshall. That's proof as to what kind of a worker she is. Frank Faison was elected historian of the senior class.

As November 22 neared, the senior class was busy making plans for Home-Coming Day, with a queen and all! Senior representatives brought in nominations for the title of queen, and the final ballot carried the names of fifteen of the most charming girls in the senior class. The name of the lucky girl was kept a secret until the afternoon of November 21, when it was announced at an informal dance. Pat Woods introduced Mary Ann Weisiger as Queen of Home-Coming Day! She received a large white chrysanthemum with long blue and white streamers.

The cadet corps held a pep rally at the city stadium on the eve of the "big game." The alumni marched with their former companies, and station WLEE broadcasted the event from the stadium.

During December and January our counselors and class representatives were busily making plans for the Popularity Contest sponsored by the senior class, for a graduation dance, a baccalaureate sermon, and, of course, commencement ceremonies.

On the night of January 30, the senior graduation dance was held in the Wythe gymnasium which was gaily decorated in blue and white. Huge graduation caps covered the baskets in the gym.

To the music of the Windsors, the girls in billowy skirts danced with their partners. The highlight of the evening was the announcement in clever rhymes by Bill Norris of the winners in "Who's Who." The girls wearing evening dresses were escorted by the boy honored with the same title. Shirley Mays and Lloyd Smith were "the best looking." "The most talented" were Ruth Lane and Malvin Whitlow. "Best all-around" girl was Jean Wright. Bobby Thomas and Ray Woody tied for this honor among the boys. Anne Marie Hardin and Fletcher Owen had the title of "most intelligent," and Gwen Priddy and "Babe" Emerson received the vote for "most athletic." Ford Ganzert and Norma Sue Holland were chosen as the "best dressed." "Most popular" were Frank Faison and Marjorie

Slaughter. Doris Luck and Corkie Tomlin had the "best personalities."

For the first time in the history of John Marshall, a Baccalaureate Service was held on Sunday, February 2, in the auditorium. The seniors wore caps and gowns. "Commissioned: Carry On" was the subject of the address delivered by the Reverend James Houston Ivey of Second Baptist Church. Rabbi Nathan Kollin of Beth-El Synagogue gave the invocation, and Reverend Thomas E. O'Connell of Saint Paul's Catholic Church pronounced the benediction.

On February 4, the graduates in caps and gowns filed down the aisles of the John Marshall auditorium to receive their diplomas. The verse-speaking choir, with Frank Faison, Anne Marie Hardin, and Ruth Lane as soloists, presented a pageant entitled "New Frontiers for Youth." Dr. Fred B. Dixon presented the class of '47 to Mr. Randolph Curch, chairman of the Richmond School Board, who delivered the diplomas and congratulated the students. Anne Marie Hardin took first honors in this February graduation class, and George Yeamans had the second highest average.

With February came a new term and new members for the senior class. Mid-term elections were held for the first time. After voting, we eagerly awaited the returns. On Thursday, March 13, the officers were officially announced in The Monocle. Bobbie Lee Brown was elected president of the class, and Bobby Hunziker was the choice for vice-president. Ellen Jean Dixon was elected secretary, and Tommy Howard, treasurer.

With new officers and new members our class was once again quickly organized, and a successful membership drive followed.

The first activity was the election of our choice for "Who's Who," but the results were not known until the night of April 18, when the high seniors officially welcomed the low seniors at a dance.

Ah! May 30, 1947! We shall always cherish the memories of this night. The low seniors gave the graduating class a formal dance which was held in the Wythe gym. This was our last class dance.

Graduation exercises were held at the Mosque. Scholarships and other honors were awarded.

Fond memories of the days spent at John Marshall will always linger. We have formed lasting friendships with students and teachers. Miss Keene and Mr. Brock will always be remembered as "co-pilots" of this our senior year.

WE JUNIORS thought our sophomore year was the best time of our lives, but, as we have traveled along the road of success by way of our junior year, we have found joys awaiting us at every turn. Our school spirit has grown and our scholarship has improved. Somehow, school has attained rightfully a place of preeminence in our lives.

Since we had been so capably organized as sophomores in the George Wythe building, naturally it was easy to continue our work as juniors and to be the first class to initiate its program for the year. Without the untiring efforts and guidance of our sponsors, Mrs. Rebie Lassiter and Mr. Oscar H. Parrish, we could not have been successful. To each one of them we owe a debt of gratitude.

The activities of the class began with a presentation of the following slate of officers in a junior assembly: president, Anne Evans and Norman Dodl; vice-president, Jane Wood and Warren Long; secretary, Martha Reuss and Doris Williams; treasurer, Bert Taurman and Evelyn Collier; and historian, Virginia Gilbert and Jess Walters. Later on, the victorious candidates,

We pose for the photographer

Such dignified juniors will make good seniors

Norman Dodl, Warren Long, Martha Reuss, Evelyn Collier, and Virginia Gilbert, were announced at a special safety assembly.

As soon as the officers and representatives had held their first meeting, the Membership Drive got under way. Each homeroom representative enlisted as many new members as possible; the results forecasted a good year for us.

Destiny, it seems, decreed that our class should tread the path, hand in hand, with Lady Luck. Being so efficiently organized, we had the first class event of the year, a picnic at Forest Hill Park, early in November. Mother Nature gave us a beautiful fall afternoon, so that we could throw horseshoes, play softball and football, and take walks through the park. Our faculty, too, took as active a part as the students in the games and the eating. Faculty members proved to be good sports on the picnic. Such fellowship between faculty and students certainly fostered a better spirit of co-operation in our classes, which remained in evidence throughout the term.

The Juniors, still ahead in class activities, gave the first dance of the semester. Again the faculty came to our aid. The art classes made posters, the photography and jewelry classes made door prizes, and Mr. Clyde Overbey gave us a pet dog for the grand prize. To the music of R. I. Post and his orchestra, the juniors "trod the light fantastic toe." The "gents" not only graced the dance by their presence but also really danced.

First prize winner, Ralph Richardson

The spring term opened new roads to pleasure for us. First, it was our privilege to choose candidates and alternates for Boys' State, sponsored by the American Legion. It was a source of pride to know that Warren Long, Edward Huff, Billy Roberson, Claude Talley, Norman Dodl and William Perdue, such fine juniors, were chosen to represent J. M. H. S. Then through the splendid co-operation of our junior homerooms and representatives, our "Who's Who" contest was conducted within two weeks' time. Furthermore, during the spring term our homeroom representatives strove to encourage 100 per cent membership by offering a bonus.

Social events for the spring term were just what each Junior desired. First came plans for an informal dance on March 28th. A big date . . . the gym bedecked with crepe paper in spring hues, door prizes, a small stag line, refreshments, and the results of "Who's Who" contest, all made this a memorable occasion for us. Those winning were: best looking, Martha Ann Boos and Billy Roberson; best personality, Sue Hallam and Claude Talley; best dressed, Betty Anne Overbey and Bobby Johnston; most intelligent, Martha Reuss and Norman Dodl; most athletic, Evelyn Collier and Eddie Huff; most popular, Connie Smith and Warren Long; and best all-around, Jean Belcher and Bob Parrish.

Prizes were awarded to the persons who had the lucky numbers. The first prize was an album with a tinted picture of the school on the front and inside a picture of the class officers, the winners of the "Who's Who" contest, and a slip to have a picture made in the photography room. Second prize was the same as the first, except that it was a different color, and the third prize was a picture. Other prizes were a pair of earrings made by Marion Rochester, sachets donated by Mrs. Hannah Sessler, stationery donated by Mrs. Rebie Lassiter, a silver bracelet, three pins, and two ash trays made in the jewelry classes, two pairs of Easter candles, two boxes of bookplates, a book, and two slips from the photography department to have pictures made. For the "spotlight dance" a small brown horse was the award.

Forest Hill again was chosen for our May picnic, as each of us had just delightful memories of one visit there in November. The playing of games, engaging in a scavenger hunt, and the bracing spring air had whetted our appetites for the delicious food. We returned home with regret, knowing that this was our last activity as juniors. However, we had our senior year, with all its promises, to anticipate.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

THE sophomore class, having been organized a little late this year, had to "get down to business" immediately as there were many new sophomores who didn't know a great deal about John Marshall but were anxious to learn new names, new faces, and new things. Many of those sophomores who had come over to John Marshall in February, '46, still felt somewhat lost because of the immensity of the school although they had had one semester in which to become oriented.

The officers, nominated by the sophomore representatives under the sponsorship of Miss Mary Sue Muckenfuss, Miss Kate Farrier, and Dr. C. P. Ely, were recognized by the students of the George Wythe school building in their weekly assembly. The winners of this election were Jane Hunter, president; Sammy Taylor, vice-president; Jo Frieda Hull, secretary-treasurer; and Billy Roberson, historian. Everyone was satisfied with the outcome of the election, and the sophomore class began its membership campaign.

Its first activity was a skating party on January 3 from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. at the Cavalier Arena. Although it was raining outside, there were only smiles on the inside of the Arena that day as everyone joked, got acquainted, and had a wonderful time skating. In addition,

Our first formal dance was a huge success

All beauties! Therefore, why try to fix up more prettily?

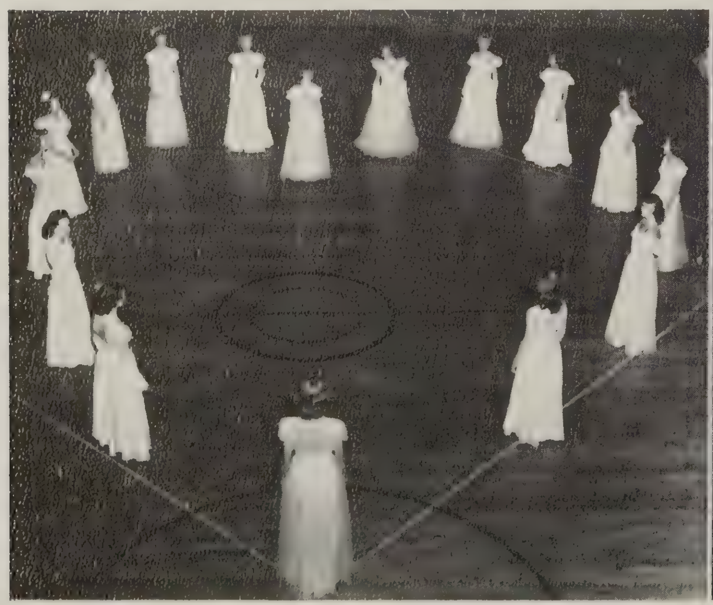
Put that cushion in the right place, girls!

there was enough food for everyone, so everyone was well pleased, of course. When the organ played, everyone "hit the floor"—but some hit it in more than one way!

On Valentine's Day the first sophomore dance was held in the gymnasium at 8:00 p.m. The girls attended the dance in evening dresses, and the boys were wearing their best Sunday "go-to-meeting" clothes.

A group of girls, wearing white evening dresses, led by Jane Hunter and Jo Hull, formed a large heart. To the music of "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" their partners came forward and the dance began.

The gym, decorated in red and white crepe paper and big red hearts to carry out the motif, blended perfectly with the music of the Whit Jenning's Quintet and helped to make the dance a big hit. Near the conclusion of the dance, the president gave away door prizes, and the lucky people received a record of Count Basie's "Open the Door, Richard!"



A heart for St. Valentine's Day

A happy group!

What! No falls?

Come! Come! Let's not be hasty, Peggy

In April the sophomores had a picnic at Forest Hill Park with plenty of soft drinks and refreshments. The baseball game, in which nearly everyone joined, was a great deal of fun.

The sophomores held their final dance in May in the gym with a large crowd attending. Everyone seemed to have a wonderful time, and no one let the knowledge that this was the last dance we would give as "sophs" dampen our spirits.

We want to thank Miss Muckenfuss, Miss Farrier, and Dr. Ely for sponsoring us and giving us such unusually fine guidance and advice.

We have enjoyed our first year at John Marshall. We hope that our junior and senior years will be filled with as much happiness and enjoyment.

THE John Marshall Student Association is an organization of all the students in the school. In the spring of each year, the entire school goes to the polls and votes for the members of the Executive Committee, which consists of twenty-five, including the four officers. The Executive Committee meets weekly, and the House of Representatives meets once a month and on call when necessary.

Our first project this year was the distribution of the new handbooks, Highlights for Marshallites, published by the John Marshall Student Association. This is the third edition and came off the press early in September. An assembly was held early in the new year, in which the officers and the Executive Committee were installed. This assembly was addressed by the Superintendent of Richmond Public Schools, Mr. H. I. Willet. The first meeting of the Richmond Federation of Student Councils was held at John Marshall, to which our Association was the host. The vice-president and secretary of the Federation are John Marshall students.

In November, the delegates from the John Marshall Student Association attended the State Conference of Student Councils at Thomas Jefferson High School, at which one John Marshall representative, Sue Hallam, made the key speech on "What Youth Think." This speech won state and national recognition. It was published in the Virginia Record, a state bulletin published by Virginia Co-operative Association, and it will also be published in the national magazine, Student Life. We, also, put into effect a program of new traffic regulations on the halls and stairs of both the John Marshall and Wythe buildings.

The Student Association took as its Christmas project a school-wide collection, so that it might play Santa Claus to the children in the City Home. It was able to provide them with Christmas stockings, toys, goodies, and clothing.

In January, the students of John Marshall, under the sponsorship of the Student Association, fell in line with the March of Dimes in fighting infantile paralysis. The contribution made by the school was most creditable.

During the war, the Student Association had given up most of its social activities to concentrate on the war effort; however, we are now getting our social program under way. We had a Christmas party in the dining room of John Marshall, at which Dr. and Mrs. Fred B. Dixon were the guests of honor. Santa Claus was rated the next prominent guest. In February, the members of the Executive Committee were the guests at a delightful supper party in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Dixon. This was the highlight of our social program for the year.

The Student Association is constantly striving to raise the standards of the school in both its curricular and extra-curricular activities, to promote good citizenship, and to build character.

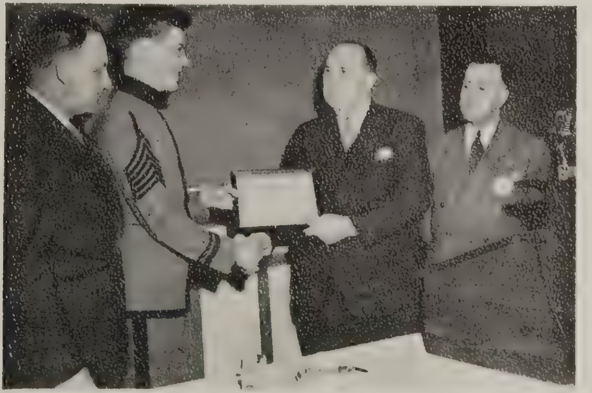
Harwood, Jr. (sponsor), Earl Griggs, Bobby Gooch, Norman Dodl, Bert Taurman, Mr. Joe Spirey (chairman of youth activities in Kiwanis Club), David Starke, Claude Talley
Standing: Mr. Bill Hiett (chairman of Key Club Committee)

THE Key Club was started this year by a group of interested men of the Kiwanis Club of Richmond. It is composed of the key boys in the school who are chosen by the members of the faculty.

The purpose of the Key Club is to render helpful service to the school and community. It is a service club and not an honor society, but it is an honor to belong to the club.

Some of the fondest memories of the club are the first meetings in 317, the installation ceremony at the Kiwanis Luncheon, the first meeting in the tea room, and the fellowship of all of its activities.

The club wishes to express its sincere thanks and good wishes to the Kiwanis Key Club Committee, Dr. Dixon, and Mr. James Harwood, Jr., for their efforts and encouragement in starting a Key Club at John Marshall.



The Key Club receives its charter

National Honor Society

Initiation

PRESENTING its eleventh induction ceremony, at John Marshall, the National Honor Society initiated eighteen students into the organization in the senior assembly before Christmas.

The four principles of the society are character, scholarship, leadership and service. Candidates for membership are selected from the upper third of the class and are voted into the society by the faculty.

With the Christmas season came a formal banquet which was held at the Stuart Circle Nurses' Home on December 23. Invitations were sent to all old members, and everyone had a wonderful time.

Officers for the spring term were elected in January.

Miss Mary V. Williams has been sponsor of the Honor Society since 1943. Dr. C. Patrick Ely introduced the society into John Marshall in 1939. The national chapter was organized in 1921, and the society now numbers more than 2,400 chapters in high schools throughout the United States, Puerto Rico, Hawaii, and the Philippines.

STRIVING to uphold the traditions of International Quill and Scroll Society, the John Marshall chapter of Quill and Scroll held its first initiation in the autumn.

Norma Harris, a post-graduate and the only member still in school, conducted the service and received nine members. All these were on The Monocle staff except one who was editor of The Record.

The election of officers followed soon after.

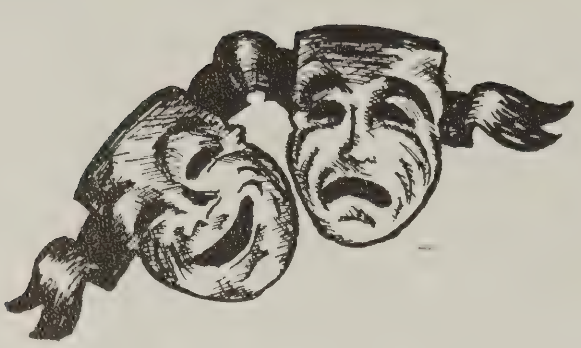
Dr. and Mrs. Fred B. Dixon were guests of honor at the annual Christmas party for the alumni. The Monocle staff, the journalism class, and some of the teachers attended. Twenty alumni were present. Among them were a number of men recently returned from war services.

Two initiations took place during the second term.

For the picture in the yearbook, the group of journalists met at the Poe Shrine, and after a tour of the garden and buildings, posed for their picture.

Following this, the society members had tea, with the sponsor, Miss Charles Anthony, as hostess.

Initiation



The Drama

THE Class of Drama is the outgrowth of a dramatic organization of the same name, formerly an extra-curricular activity organized and sponsored by Mrs. Charlotte Wheeler De Courcy, who procured the present stage, curtains, and much of the equipment in the regular class room, 209. Through the efforts of Miss Eva Branch and Mrs. De Courcy, it became a regular class in 1938, a part of the regular speech course. Students eligible for this course must have had one term in speech. The students act, direct, and produce plays, doing all the work themselves with help and advice from the teacher. During the term each student takes part in one sketch from a three-act play and three one-act plays. He works on committees such as: library, costumes, lights, make-up, props, bulletin board, and set. He makes a note book containing an outline of the history of drama, all notes pertaining to committee work, a record of plays produced, drawings of sets, programs, and pictures of period costumes. The student plans his own sets, borrows or makes the properties he uses, and learns to cooperate with the whole class. He practices control of body and voice. The more work he does, the more fun he has.

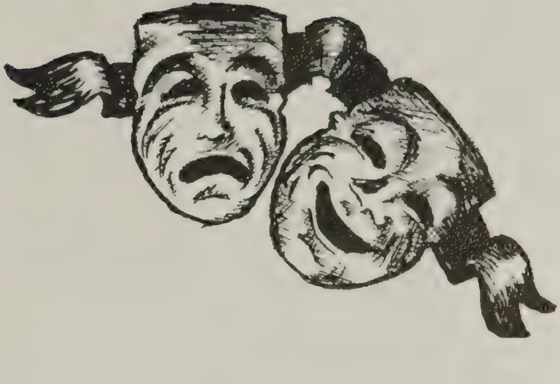
Classes



THE Class of Drama begins its acting experience with a series of scenes from plays such as: The Importance of Being Earnest, The Bat, Alice-Sit-by-the-Fire, Victoria Regina, Pride and Prejudice, and The Barrets of Wimpole Street. All scenes are rehearsed simultaneously, making the room sound as if there were a noisy riot; but with each student concentrating on his own scene and part, the noise from the others in rehearsal is unnoticed by him. After the scenes, when the student has the feel of the stage, he starts working on one-act plays. Those most popular are: The Valiant, When the Whirlwind Blows, Holding a Husband, Overtones, The Wonder Hat, Two Crooks and a Lady, They're None of Them Perfect, Girls Must Talk, The Bishop's Candlesticks, The Mayor and the Manicure, The Devil on Stilts, Letters, Afterwards, Sanctuary, etc.

To each of these another class is invited to be the audience. Each audience is chosen by the group doing that particular play.

Every other year the Class of Drama produces the regular John Marshall play, a three-act, which runs two nights and is supported by the school, parents, and alumni.

From fantasy to tragedy, drama in all its forms is illustrated. Customs, manners, and costumes of the last three centuries are studied as well as those of the Land of Make-Believe. Each term the class tries to arrange to play for some of the base hospitals nearby.

John Marshall's orchestra joined with that of Thomas Jefferson High School early in January, forming the All-City High School Orchestra. The group gave its first concert January 24 at a local theater.

In March, Mr. Mark Troxell took over the position of director of the orchestra which Mr. Darrel Joachim had vacated. That same month the orchestra participated in the production of "The Mikado," the school's theatrical production for this year.

David Starke, principal oboist, represented the John Marshall High School orchestra in both the Virginia All-State Band at Norfolk and the All-Southern High School Orchestra in Birmingham, Alabama.

Commercial Art

THE Commercial Art course was begun in the February term of 1945 with an enrollment of approximately ten students. Since that date this new vocational class has more than tripled its original size. Yes, since that date it has grown from one class to four!

In September, 1945, the enrollment was such that two full-time classes were necessary. In February of '46 three classes were started, and in September of this year still a fourth class was introduced which was added to the orientation program as an exploratory course for our T&IO boys. Two of our classes are conducted at the Virginia Mechanics Institute.

The foundation course of Commercial Art is designed to give the students training in the basic fundamentals of the various specialties of the Commercial Art field. Courses are conducted to give every student definite, practical training along the line of work for which each is the best suited. At the same time the students are made familiar with trade practices and possibilities for development and progress in the unlimited fields that they have chosen for their careers.

Advanced students specialize in the branch of Commercial Art for which they show the most ability, using a secondary interest as a minor specialty. This specialized course covers training in posters, newspaper, magazine or display advertising, story illustrations, booklets, folders, types of advertising produced in agencies, and window display, as well as work in the various techniques employed in advertising work.

In conjunction with their classroom activities the students make field trips to see and to study advertising methods used by local organizations. They also visit museums and places of interest which may serve as sources for information needed in their later work.

Nor are the Commercial Art classes isolated from the rest of the school. . . They have a keen interest in and participate in many of the school functions. Up to date they have made invitations for parties and banquets, posters for social and business activities of the school, made a contribution to the scenery for the Christmas play, and assisted in decorating for the classes' and Cadet Corps' dances.

Diversified Occupational Training

THESE are working people. Their school-work program pays in three ways.

They have an opportunity to learn an occupation before graduation from John Marshall.

They receive credit for a satisfactory work experience toward graduation, and are even paid while doing it!

Moreover, more than three-fourths of them remain as permanent full-time employees with the agencies responsible for their training.

Working under supervision can be fun.

They are off to a good start—more power to them!

(6) Manuel Derderian makes certain he doesn't keep the customer waiting. (7) Dan Hooper gathers his flowers. How does your garden grow, Dan? Distributors' Club

THE smiling students above are members of John Marshall's Distributors' Club, an organization composed of those students who are studying retailing. These are the Marshallites who earn while they learn. They attend school in the morning; and with the help of Miss Vivien King, Distributive Education Coordinator, they find employment in Richmond's retail and wholesale establishments where they work a minimum of fifteen hours each week as a part of their school training.

Their classroom and club activities are quite closely related. They study salesmanship, display, advertising, store and stock keeping, business arithmetic, and effective speech. Club programs and extra activities include outside speakers from the business world, field trips to Richmond's stores, and visits with other Distributors' Clubs in the area.

Outstanding among the club's activities this year have been a wiener roast in the fall, a St. Patrick's Day party, and a spring picnic and outing. During the fall semester a delightful visit was made to Maggie Walker High School where the Distributors' Club there entertained with a luncheon and a tour of the school. In the spring semester the club at the School of Store Service, Richmond Professional Institute, invited J. M.'s Distributors' Club to one of its evening meetings when a most enlightening talk on Personnel Departments was given by Miss Katherine Bell, employment manager at Thalhimer's.

The State Distributors' Club Convention was held at R. P. I., March 28-29. At this convention J. M.'s Club was able to discuss its activities with other delegates from similar clubs throughout the state.

The Distributors' Club of America is a growing organization for the advancement of students in the field of distribution. Virginia had the privilege of sending delegates to the first national convention held in Memphis, Tennessee, in April.

When Russell Martin gives forth with a feel of quality, a pleasing smile, and a sales-talk, how can his customer resist?

Wendell Foreman and Lois Layne learn the secrets of making a window display as the work on a miniature shadow-box creation

Nell Klapp is a shining example of "service with a smile" as she measures her customer for a belt

Peggy Lee is shown taking her job as file clerk quite seriously. Filing is fun; why so glum, chum?

The fine arts of salesmanship are demonstrated in class by Lena Greenberg as she lets Sophie Juarnis feel the quality of those "oh-so-sheer" nylons

"With a supply like this to choose from, I should be able to satisfy all my customers," says Virginia Johnson as she checks the stock room supply

Commercial Foods

Jean Whitmore and Shirley Baur cooperate in serving the dessert

Margaret Grey is asking Jean Whitmore, "What's cooking, Doc?"

Bertha Davis is serving Marion Sledd, Jean Andrews, Geraldine Dolan, and Norma Wilson. It's all in the day's work!

COMMERCIAL FOODS is one of the new vocational classes started last year at John Marshall and offered to both boys and girls. The class meets for three hours a day and runs through recess, at which time lunch is served in the Tea Room. This room has been beautifully decorated in blue and white with aluminum tables that have a linenized finish. The chairs are upholstered in blue leather. The Tea Room has a seating capacity of forty-eight.

At the present this course covers three years of work. In the student's senior year, he works half day outside of school, as is done in other vocational classes.

The purpose of this class is to train students to go into various types of commercial work along the lines of foods. Some of the occupations for which the student is trained are: hostess, cashier, manager or assistant manager of restaurants or cafeterias, supervisor, and dietitian. The course offers an excellent opportunity for students who are interested in foods' work. The openings for employment are numerous as the food business is a permanent institution—people must eat! Also it is estimated that more people are eating out now than ever before in the history of our country.

THE Christian Youth League is eight years old. Several former members are now in the ministry; others are studying for the ministry or for some other field of full-time Christian service.

In the spring of 1946, the Christian Youth League sponsored an assembly on "The Day of Prayer for World Peace." This program received an excellent response from the student body.

Our chief topics for discussion this year have been "Christianity and World Peace" and "Personal Growth in Christianity." We are grateful to a number of ministers of Richmond's churches, who by their helpful messages have given us encouragement and inspiration.

Our motto is "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth."

THE Forum Club of John Marshall High School was organized in 1939. Since that time the club has progressed a great deal. Promoting good citizenship through the development of interest in and understanding of current affairs is the purpose of the club.

In the meetings the members hold panel and informal discussions on local, national, and international affairs. Through such projects, we hope to become better Marshallites and better citizens.

"COMMENT allez-vous?" Here's hoping that this past year has been filled with happiness and joy for every Marshallite.

For the Sans Souci Club, it has been a prosperous year, full of fun and excitement. The club more than doubled in size, with sophomores taking an active part.

Our members had the experience of talking with Mrs. Landman, a former French citizen, about French customs and holidays.

On Thanksgiving Day, with our streaming blue and white colors and cow bells, we all piled on a chartered bus and went to Petersburg for the annual "Turkey Day" game.

Probably the most memorable event of the year was the annual French and Spanish banquet, held at Ewart's Cafeteria. John Marshall and Thomas Jefferson joined together and produced an entertaining program, full of music and song. Besides the banquet, the club sponsored the French film, "The Life of Beethoven." From our meetings we gained knowledge, as well as pleasure. There were numerous games, skits, and songs—and the Christmas party was, oh, so much fun!

Our ever-present hope is that the Sans Souci Club will continue to grow. Au revoir, mes amis!

Don Juan Club

JANICE DRAUGHN	President

¡BUENOS DIOS, Amigos! Another successful term of fun, pleasure, and varied events has passed for the Don Juan Club, thanks to the capable sponsorship of Miss Louise Robertson who has been sponsor for the past three terms. One of the highlights of the Spanish Club included an exciting trip to Washington, which ended with a sleepy, but happy, crowd. All agreed the trip was very satisfactory. A few of the places visited included were: Mount Vernon, the Pan-American Building with its beautiful patio, the Washington Monument, the Capitol, and the Franciscan Cathedral with its intriguing underground caverns.

Another highlight which was occasion for discussions among members of the club was a step forward toward becoming better acquainted with our Buenos Vecinos del Sur. At the meetings games, movies, Spanish recordings, and singing Spanish songs were enjoyed.

The club members had a wiener roast at Forest Hill Park.

With "Adelante siempre adelante" as the club's motto, the Don Juan Club looks forward to Buena Suerta en los años que viene. ¡Hasta la vista!

THROUGH the efforts of the library staff, composed of twenty-five volunteer workers, the library is able to give more efficient service to the school. Their duties include shelving, slipping and charging books, checking passes, etc. During the term the library staff has met in the library each first and third recess in order to acquire more detailed knowledge of library terms and techniques.

THIS year the Junior Red Cross has worked hard helping the children of the war-torn nations of Europe. They sent gift boxes and educational boxes to many starving children. Mr. Kipp's homeroom received a letter from some girls in Luxembourg thanking the American children for their thoughtfulness. The Junior Red Cross sponsored a song contest and entertainment for the boys at McGuire General Hospital and at Camp Lee.

THE Y-Teen Club is sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. for high school and junior high girls. These clubs are made up of girls who are interested in world affairs. The chief aim of the clubs this year is to help the young women of other countries to rebuild Y. W. C. A.'s of prewar days and also to form new branches in countries that have had no such organizations. We believe that this undertaking will carry out the purpose of the Y. W. C. A. This purpose is: "To build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians. In this endeavor we seek to understand Jesus, to share His love for all people, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God."

The highlight of our social activities this year was the tea given in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Fred Dixon. The faculty was invited and the tea was a great success. The Sophomore Y-Teen Club gave a Christmas party for the smaller children at the Methodist Orphanage. They had several entertaining programs and worked on World Reconstruction Fund.

AFTER eighteen years of covering news at John Marshall and winning top publication honors throughout the United States, The Monocle can again be proud of its recognition as one of the best high school publications in this country.

This school newspaper received the rating of Medalist, the highest honor, from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association; International Honor Rating, highest award, from Quill and Scroll; first place award from the National Scholastic Press Association; the Gallup Award, for war service, from Quill and Scroll; and a distinguished award for features from Columbia University.

Before Christmas, Miss Charles Anthony, newspaper adviser, was requested to select features from The Monocle and exchanges for The School Press Review of the Columbia Press Association. The story selected was a feature on Colonel Frank McCarthy, written by Helen Haskins when McCarthy had just become United States Assistant Secretary of State.

"After reading the features sent to us, it was felt that the one from her own paper set a standard for feature writers that is hard to beat. The manner in which it was handled suggested itself as the right one to offer to the membership of the Association for study and consideration," stated Mr. Joseph Murphy, editor of the School Press Review, in an explanatory note accompanying the story.

Helen Haskins, co-editor of The Monocle in 1945-46, won the News Leader journalism scholarship award for 1946. This scholarship was established in memory of the News Leader men who died in the service of their country during World War II.

In the September issues of the paper, The Monocle welcomed as principal the distinguished and widely experienced educator, Dr. Fred B. Dixon.

Celebrating eighteen years of existence, The Monocle had a birthday party in the pressroom on March 1. Members of the staff and invited guests attended this celebration, and everyone participated in the cutting of the large birthday cake.

In April delegates from The Monocle attended the Southern Interscholastic Press Meet at Washington and Lee University in Lexington, Virginia.

Finally, the newspaper has tried to cover the news of every school activity and has given publicity, as usual, to important drives in the school and in the city.

THE first issue of The Record was dedicated to Dr. Fred Dixon who was greeted by Barbara Bozarth and Betty Cosby in the article, "Welcome, Dr. Dixon." Norman Dodl emphasized youth's responsibility in "Children and Peace." "Carousing with Krause" was introduced, and May's writings always make good reading! Kathleen Burkett originated a new styled "Show Window," exclusively the editor's comments.

The winter issue, carrying the first installment of "The Fourteenth Step," by Stuart Davis, received the most favorable criticism. The "Justices' Court" and "Veterans' Corner" were enlarged, and a "duck" symbol of the ex-G. I. was cut for the illustration of the latter department.

May Krause, Lois Jarratt—typing copy

Stuart Davis concluded his excellent story combining humor and horror in the spring issue of The Record.

The summer issue naturally highlighted the graduating seniors who will no longer have the pleasure of reading this fine magazine in class!

Mr. Beverly, Miss Branch, and The Record staff thank everyone who contributed to this year's work. Only by your continued support and literary efforts can The Record hold its honored place.

WITH "The Future" as the theme of the 1947 Marshallite, the staff has endeavored to present a book filled with everlasting memories.

To assist in the editorial work the staff was divided into committees, each working on a different section of the book. The committees were responsible for planning the layout, numbering the pictures, drawing the designs for each page to scale, and obtaining and correcting the copy to appear on each page. After this work was approved, the members of the committees sketched the page in the dummy. A cut had to be made of each picture. This cut was given a number according to its location in the dummy. The corrected copy had to be typed by the typing classes or by the staff.

It was always a delight to have the commercial photographers come to school and take pictures. The staff will not soon forget the many trips to Mr. Ford, our engraver, and Mr. Butler, our printer.

One of the major responsibilities in publishing this yearbook was to obtain one thousand dollars in advertisements, an increase of approximately five hundred dollars over last year's goal. To accomplish this objective, each member on the staff was given a beat so as to prohibit retracing the city in the canvass for "ads." The "J. M. 50 Club," an organization restricting its membership to those pupils who have sold fifty dollars or more of advertising space, was founded this year. Hal Bonney, Florence Clarke and Bill Norris are its charter members.

Florence Clarke, as editor, conducted the staff meetings, received committees' reports, and edited the material. The staff was fortunate in having Hal Bonney, Jr., as its fine and capable business manager.

All of the art work for this book was done by Anne Shields, and the poetry by Mary Butler.

It may seem that publishing the MARSHALLITE was all work. However, the staff also had much fun. The Christmas party in the private dining room of John Marshall was very enjoyable. Mary Butler received first prize for guessing correctly the number of pieces of hard candy in a jar. Everyone drew a surprise package.

A theater party was given for the members of the "J. M. 50 Club" who invited as their guests the two pupils who solicited the most "ads" during a two weeks' period. Also the two staff members who obtained the largest number of subscriptions from the junior and sophomore classes were guests.

Florence Clarke gave a picnic for the staff in May. A wonderful time was had on this day at Forest Hill Park.

John Marshall plays the "thrill game" of the season against Thomas Jefferson High School; cadets look on from background

OUR big blue team met its first opposition on the J. M. athletic field at 3:30 p.m., Friday, September 20. The Blue and White "waved on high" this day as our team came through with a 25-0 victory. Emmerson, Garbett, Filer, and French made touchdowns with Garbett scoring an extra point.

The next game was held at night at the city stadium on September 27, at 8:15 p.m. This was the first time John Marshall had played a night game in Richmond. The Justices put up a good fight and held the Cadets until the fourth quarter when Benedictine scored the only touchdown of the game, making the score 6-0.

stadium at 3:00. We lost to them by a 7-0 score. It was a fight to the finish and the Justices surely put on a good show. Better luck next time, gang!

On October 13, John Marshall's eleven met with Woodrow Wilson High School of Portsmouth, Va., at the stadium. Our team didn't score, although they did their best in all the mud and rain which handicapped them. The score was 40-0; a victory for Wilson High.

Roanoke welcomed John Marshall's team in Roanoke on October 18. Another good game was witnessed by a large attendance, and our boys were really in there trying. Although we didn't win, the score was surprisingly good.

Granby High of Norfolk, Va., one of the best playing teams, defeated John Marshall 28-0, but it was nevertheless an enjoyable game.

On November 1, John Marshall was trounced 32-0. Although we tried hard, it was little use against the eleven of Hopewell High. The game was played at Hopewell, and Norman Dodl was responsible for chartering two buses to convey loyal John Marshall followers to this game.

Alexandria met the grand "ole" Blue and White flying high in that city on November 8. The John Marshall Cadet Corps accompanied our team to this game and added color and spirit to the fight. John Marshall had to bow again in a 12-0 defeat.

November 23! This is a red lettered day in our memories. Playing the football classic of the season, Thomas Jefferson won from John Marshall with the score 6-0. This was a hard defeat for the "Big Blue Team" and its loyal followers to take. John Marshall went to the one yard line, but lost out there in the last two minutes of the game. Everyone agreed it was a most exciting game.

The Crimson Waves of Petersburg handed the John Marshall boys their last defeat of the season in the traditional Thanksgiving game at Petersburg on November 28. The French Club chartered a bus to take loyal Marshallites to this game. The score, 13-0, did not affect the great enthusiasm of the crowd. crowd. Our students showed their school spirit in every way.

BASKETBALL

An exciting moment

JOHN MARSHALL opened its pre-Christmas holiday season by being nosed out of the "win column" by the "baby Jackets" of Randolph-Macon College in Ashland on December 18. Forrest Simmons and Ted Filer led the Justices' attack with 13 and 10 points respectively. Although the Justices were impressive, they still had a great many rough edges which needed smoothing. Randolph-Macon's "B" team won 35-27.

On January 7, John Marshall met Benedictine High School in the gym of Thomas Jefferson High School. It was a difficult game with the Cadets winning 36 to 15. Ted Filer was the high scorer for the Justices with 9 points. "Stump" Garbett and Forrest Simmons played a good floor game. Our team was very ragged as it could not seem to get any rebound and its members had difficulty working together.

John Marshall traveled to Petersburg on January 10 to play the Crimson Wave. The game was a double-header with the schools' "B" teams meeting in the preliminary. Petersburg won 34 to 22. The "A" team lost this game also, although its playing showed much improvement. The score was 47 to 17 with Ted Filer and Boyce Leigers leading the score for the Justices with 8 points each. Our team showed such an improvement in this game that we could have won if we could have "hit the hoops" better.

John Marshall broke into the "win column" against Hopewell in the Wythe gym on Tuesday, January 14, with the final score 31 to 28. Ted Filer and Ed Huff led the Justices with 11 points each. "Stump" Garbett played a fine floor game for John Marshall. The final minutes of the game were very wild with Hopewell coming very close to making the score a tie.

John Marshall met Maury High School in Norfolk on Friday, January 17. The score was 51 to 28. During the first half the Justices did not look so good. We could not get the ball off the backboard or get any good shots. The Justices, however, showed an improvement in the second half. Ted Filer led the Justices with 14 points. Stanley Goodman was Maury's main threat. This game may be recalled by many as the game in which the lights went out six times in the first half for a total of 45 minutes.

John Marshall went down to their sixth defeat in the Granby High School gym in Norfolk on January 18. "Buddy" Melton and Ted Filer showed that they were capable of getting the ball off the backboard against the best. Charles Trainum was the Justices' high point man with 9 points, followed by Filer with 7. The final score was 55 to 28.

On the spacious Blues' Armory court, Thomas Jefferson squeezed out the Justices 23 to 22 on January 24. John Marshall was ahead 4 to 3 at the end of the first quarter, 10 to 9 at the half, and 18 to 16 at the end of the third quarter. John Marshall played the best game of its season with Stuart Garbett, Ed Huff, and Ted Filer playing exceptionally good ball. Stuart Garbett and Ed Huff tied for high place with 8 points each. During the first half of the game, the Justices did very well on the backboard. However, Teejay started getting more balls off the backboard in the second half.

St. Christopher was defeated by the Justices 39 to 37, after the score had been made a tie in the last few minutes of the game. This close contest took place in the Wythe gym on January 29. Charles Trainum and Ted Filer led the attack with 12 and 10 points respectively. They were followed closely by Stuart Garbett and Boyce Leigers with 8 points each. John Marshall lost its excellent lead at the half of 24 to 12.

John Marshall opened a double-header in the Teejay gym against Granby on January 31. We went down 46 to 21. Stuart Garbett was high man for the "Blue and White" with 8 points. Ted Filer followed with 7 points. The closest that we got to Granby was in the first half when we pulled up only 3 points behind this team.

Maury High opened its attack against the Justices like a ball of fire in the Teejay gym on February 1. However, its power wore off as the game progressed. The final score of this second game in a double-header was 28 to 22 in Maury's favor. Ted Filer and Boyce Leigers led our team with 6 points each.

John Marshall opened the second half of its basketball campaign by losing to the "baby Indians" of William and Mary College, 40 to 21. Paul Gentry made his debut on the John Marshall varsity team in this game. He scored 5 points and played a very good floor game. Our team missed the excellent playing of Stuart Garbett whom we lost by graduation. Ted Filer was high scorer for the "Blue and White" with 12 points. This game was played in Williamsburg on February 4.

February 11 at the Teejay gym the Justices kept alive their hopes of winning the Central District crown by defeating Petersburg 30-25. The "Blue and White" played the best game of the year. Paul Gentry and Ed Huff led the Justices with 10 and 8 points respectively.

The Justices won their second straight on February 13 in Hopewell over the fighting Blue Devil Five. The score was 53-39. Paul Gentry led the Justices with 21 points, followed by "Bud" Simmons and Ted Filer with 11 points each. Gentry played an important part in the Justices' offense by handling the ball and shooting with great accuracy. "Bud" Simmons played a very fine defensive game. It was a fairly tight game until the final quarter when the "Blue and White" really "got hot."

The Cadets snapped the Justices' win streak at the Teejay gym on February 14. In the fourth quarter John Marshall seemed to have played out. Gentry led the Justices and was also high scorer for the game, making 14 points. The final score was 33-24.

However, John Marshall took the fighting Saints 32-30 at St. Christopher on February 18. The game was closely contested, with neither team enjoying more than a four or six point lead at any time. Paul Gentry led the Justices and was high scorer for the game with 15 points. This was a very rough game with numerous fouls being called.

Tuesday, February 25, on the Blues' Armory court the Justices went down before the Jeffs 38-28. This victory gave the Jeffs the Central District crown. It was a hotly contested game, with Ted Filer and Paul Gentry leading the John Marshall quintet with 9 and 7 points respectively. If it had not been for that fourth quarter, things might have been different. During this period it seemed that the Justices couldn't do anything right and the Jeffs couldn't do anything wrong. However, another season is coming—John Marshall will show them then!

TRACK

THE John Marshall track team has made, thus far, a very creditable showing this spring, particularly in dual meets.

The season opened with an indoor meet in Grays' Armory with J. M., T. J., Benedictine and St. Christopher well represented. T. J. emerged with a one point victory over J. M. (33-32).

Then came the Carolina Invitational Indoor Meet held at Chapel Hill, North Carolina. John Marshall placed fourth with some forty to fifty schools represented. Jack Gale won 5 points for first place in the 70 yard high hurdles. The relay team took 2 additional points.

On March 29th the outdoor season officially opened on the J. M. field with Petersburg High School. The Justices swept first, second, third, in nine of the thirteen events. The Red Terrors of Petersburg were overwhelmed 93½ to 14½, with Gale, Parrish, Harris and Pate our outstanding performers.

On April 4th, the Justices played host to Washington and Lee High School of Arlington, Virginia; and after a very combative and hard fought meet, the John Marshall boys were defeated 67 to 56. Again Bob Parrish, Jack Gale, Ed Harris and Lee Early were among the top point makers for the day.

April 12th, Hampton High School invaded Richmond to meet the "Eighth Street boys" in a cinder dual. The score ended 86 to 32 with J. M. on the big end. Gale, Harris, Parrish, and Jennings were top scorers.

The Richmond boys went to Williamsburg for the annual Tidewater meet on April 19th. After a very close and exciting evening, the meet ended with Newport News first, Granby second, and John Marshall third. The scores were respectively 35½, 34, and 30. The final event of the day, the relay, was the determining factor for the winner.

These meets had yet to be attended when this book went to press:

IN THE early part of March Coach Thompson called th first baseball practice to which thirty-five candidates an swered. The outlook for the season was bright with Letterme Bill Daniels, Jimmy Baber, Roy Smith, Forrest Simmons "Skippy" Clary, and Bobby Owens (All-City outfielder i 1946) returning. The usual line-up was Clary, third base Gentry, left field; Raborg, short stop; Owens, center field Simmons, first base; Baber, catcher; Huff, right field; Long second base; and Smith, pitcher. Gentry, Roach, and Nobl were pitchers. Bill Daniels caught and played the outfield Jerry Pugh also substituted for Long at second.

Gentry and Baber made eight hits each for the eight games "Skippy" Clary, Bobby Owens, Ed Huff, Warren Long, an Forrest Simmons made more than five hits. The infiel booted one or two every game but, as a unit, played well. Th team hit fairly well and had good luck during the season winning six games and losing two. Roy Smith was recognize as one of the best pitchers in the city.

FALL hockey began for the John Marshall girls in the middle of September under the supervision of Coach McKenney. The season started with daily practices. After two weeks, Tuesday and Thursday became the regular days for practice games. Ann Newland, Irene Brandt, and Virginia Ridenour were the only girls who had already won their letters. Betty Vaughan was elected captain. Because of sickness, however, this position was filled by Irene Brandt and Virginia Ridenour.

After several practice games we played our first real game on October 10th, with the Richmond Professional Institute. R. P. I. scored two points in the first half. John Marshall came back in the second half with one point. This was made by substitute Kitty Jones. At the close of the game, the score was 2 to 1 in R. P. I.'s favor.

On October 17, John Marshall went to Collegiate School. We scored one point in the second half. This point was made by Right Inner Ann Newland. Collegiate won by scoring two points in the first half and one in the second half.

John Marshall played its first game outside of the city when it played Petersburg on October 25. We were unable to score but our opponent scored five points.

November 4. We were completely unable to rally against their strength. We lost, 11-0.

On November 7, John Marshall went to Westhampton to play that college's second team. Jean Belcher, our center, scored in the first half. Ann Newland, right inner, scored in the second half. Westhampton College scored only one point and this was in the first half. Miss McKenney was justly proud of the John Marshall girls for winning this game, since it proved that they were beginning to play "real hockey." An alert sense of team work so necessary for good hockey was awakened at this game.

John Marshall played Thomas Jefferson at T. J. on November 14. Jean Belcher scored in the first half. Although J. M. put up a good fight to the very end, the score was 2 to 1 in T. J.'s favor.

The J. M. girls outplayed their opponents in many games, but could not outscore them. After all, that is what counts! Miss McKenney said that our girls played better hockey this year than they have ever played in her three years of coaching.

Although we are losing Irene Brandt, one of our best players, as well as Mary Frances Sweeney and Gwendolyn Priddy, John Marshall should have a very good team next year and in the years to come if our girls continue to improve and the students continue to lend their support.

Ann Newland, Irene Brandt, Juanita Marshall, and Evelyn Collier proudly wear their letters. These girls were chosen for the All Virginia Prep Team. (Virginia Ridenour, who received the same honor, is not in the picture)

THE girls' basketball team opened their 1947 season with five letter girls (Ann Newland, Iris Verelle, Frances Durrette, Betty Vaughan, Betsy Sheppard), two transfers from second team (Evelyn Collier, Irene Brandt), and two new girls (Gwen Priddy, Juanita Marshall). They started on January 14 by conquering Hopewell 23-20 in Wythe gym. Ann Newland, Iris Verelle, and Frances Durrette played forward; Captain Betty Vaughan, Betsy Sheppard, and Irene Brandt were guards.

The team had a great let-down on January 21, when they lost to Varina, 38-30. Newland, left forward, and Davis, one of Varina's forwards, tied the scoring with 18 points each. Forwards Gwen Priddy and Iris Verelle did their best in playing guard along with Juanita Marshall and Irene Brandt, two of the regular guards. B Team won 26-12.

The Justice six chalked up another victory, on January 25, by outscoring Waynesboro 32-23. Newland led the scoring with 19 points. Two of the four guards still out, Forward Gwen Priddy again tried her hand at playing guard. At the half Waynesboro was ahead 19-12, but in the third quarter the Marshallites held their opponents to one point while they made 11. During the fourth quarter they went ahead to win the game by a margin of 9 points.

January 30, the team went to Petersburg to subdue the Crimson Wave by one point, the score being 15-14. All of our forwards were in a goal-missing mood, but the guards' calm, steady playing prevented the Petersburg six from outscoring John Marshall. At the half time, J. M. was two points behind. The third quarter, they held the Crimson Wave, allowing them to make no goals. Near the end of the game the opponents were out in front by 14-13. Iris Verelle saved the day by making a field goal a few seconds before time was called. B Team won 26-6.

On February 7, John Marshall won from St. Catherine's 29-23, being the first victory over them in three years. All of the girls played a good game, especially the guards, Sheppard, Priddy, and Brandt. The Coach remarked that her guards had outplayed her forwards in all of their games and she expected them to continue their good work. (And they did!) Marks and Chapman, of St. Catherine's, were half a head taller than either of our guards. After the game, Marks told Coach McKenney that she thought her height would be an advantage to her in basketball, but it didn't help her playing against the Jayem guards!

The Blue and White went to town to trounce the Midlothian team 26-11 in the Wythe gym, February 11. Evelyn Collier was high scorer with 14 points, Ann Newland coming in second making 10 points.

On February 14, the Justices walked over Collegiate to win the game by a margin of 28 points, the score being 36-8. Ann Newland's 14 points topped Evelyn Collier's 12 with Iris Verelle and Frances Durrette making 6 and 4 points respectively.

The girls were greatly disappointed when they lost to T. J. by 2 points, February 19. All through the game the score was shifting from one team to another. Making the last goal just before the whistle, T. J. once more added a John Marshall victory. Iris Verelle was high scorer with 20 points. She also made 6 points that did not count.

The Marshallites were thrilled when they upset Fredericksburg's little red cart by a score of 24-19 on February 28. It was Fredericksburg's first loss out of ten straight wins. Ann Newland did her part in making 15 points.

The J. M. six played their last and most unusual game of the season on March 11 by losing to the Manchester Lancers 48-23. At the end of the first quarter the Lancers had a lead of 2 points, and in the second quarter the Jayem girls went to pieces for the lack of co-operation. The unusual thing about the game was that the Manchester team lost their tempers, causing one of their team members to be taken out of the game. Several of the spectators remarked that (referring to J. M.) they had never seen such a display of good sportsmanship, for there was a smile on the face of every Justice player all through the game. Even though the Blue and White lost by the score, yet they won and they knew it. What do you think? They should be congratulated. The girls regretted that their Coach, Miss McKenney, could not be with them due to illness.

TENNIS

TENNIS is one of the favorite sports in spring. The John Marshall girls' team practices at Hotchkiss Field every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Although some of the players are very good, they had not had an opportunity to play any league games before this book went to press.

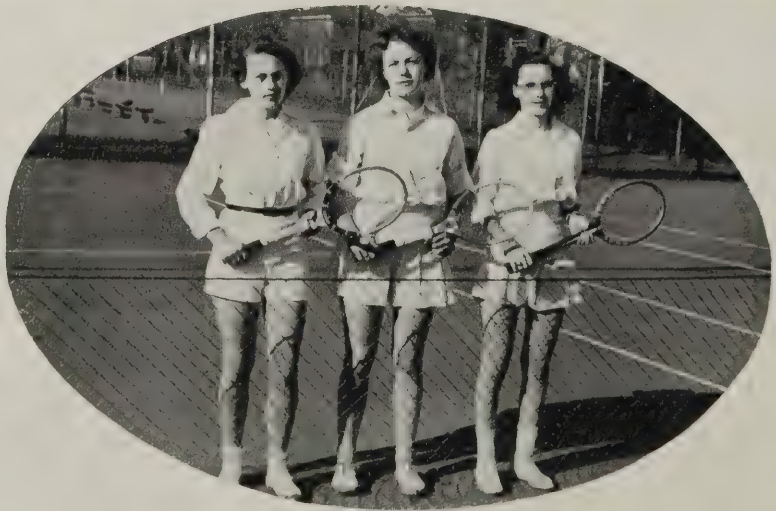
Betty Vaughan, Ann Newland, and Mary Frances Sweeney have received their "letters" in tennis.



SOFTBALL

SOFTBALL is fastly becoming one of America's leading sports. The John Marshall team is interested in this activity and practices regulary at Hotchkiss Field. The game schedule started on April 25, but much practice was required before this date.

CURRICULAR

IN THE foyer of John Marshall High School there is a facsimile of the Constitution of the United States and a plaque honoring the alumni who lost their lives in World War I. In the corridor, oil paintings of famous Virginian line the walls. These were gifts of former graduating classes Also in the front hall are two trophy cases, symbols of Joh Marshall's prowess in many fields. A plaque honorin those who lost their lives in the service of their country i World War II was presented this year. Such pride an tradition is the strength of our school!

Pupils in this high school have a wide variety of subject from which they may choose their programs. Some ar prepared for college, some for commercial careers, and som for technical trades.

Besides the regular English classes, there is instruction i dramatics, public speaking, and journalism. English is on of the few required subjects. Although mathematics is no a required subject for some of the courses, many pupil realize how valuable this subject is and take advantage o the wide offering in this field. It is possible for a pupil t obtain four years of high school mathematics in their programs. This is an excellent preparation for college.

American history in the senior year is required of a pupils for graduation. However, many pupils enjoy course in history in each of their high school years. The proximit to the Capitol Square makes visits to the General Assembl of Virginia a very profitable experience.

The following science courses are offered: chemistry physics, biology, and health. These classes carry laborator practice also. There is a "Test Tube Twirlers' Club" t satisfy young chemists who wish additional pleasure an knowledge in this field.

To some, Latin is still a most enjoyable subject. Althoug this course is not as popular as it once was, many pupi planning to attend college take advantage of this offerin Spanish and French are also electives. Movies, as well phonographs and records, are used in the instruction these classes.

ACTIVITIES

In the commercial field, typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and business fundamentals are taught, enabling a pupil to receive an excellent preparation for a business career.

John Marshall has always been proud of its vocal and instrumental contributions to the world of music. Besides vocal classes and an opera class, there is an a capella choir which practices at recess. The John Marshall orchestra and the Cadet Corps band are also organizations which bring honor to the school whenever they perform. These musical units assist in many civic events, such as the Sunrise Service on Easter, entertainments at local hospitals for veterans, and radio appearances. Their services often add greatly to the assembly programs and the pep rallies at John Marshall.

Boys may take mechanical drawing, electricity, or machine shop as an elective; or may have a more intensive training in these fields under the vocational program.

A varied course is offered to those who are interested in art. This subject may be taken as an elective. However, a concentrated study may be made in the commercial arts course which is especially designed for those who wish to make art their "life-work."

Sewing and cooking are classes which appeal to many a future home-maker. The girls design and make their own clothes, staging fashion shows to exhibit their work. Those in the cooking classes work on the assumption that food was made to be eaten so they make it good! The commercial foods course gives excellent training for those who desire to make a career out of planning menus, managing a tea room, etc.

Physical education classes are offered to both boys and girls. Sports are very popular as extra-curricular activities.

Photography and jewelry are recent additions to the curricular offerings at John Marshall. These courses are very popular with the pupils.

The Sight Conservation Class is a special class in which the pupils are assisted by a trained worker in this field. These students attend regular classes.

John Marshall High School has a full-time nurse and a full-time librarian who has an assistant.

An excellent guidance program is being evolved for this school.

CADET CAPTAIN WILEY CROSS INQUIRES ABOUT ADVANTAGES OF REGULAR ARMY ENLISTMENT

Q. How may I follow my educational inclinations while in the service?

A. The Regular Army offers unlimited opportunities to those desiring to further their knowledge. The United States Armed Forces Institute, in cooperation with leading Universities and Colleges throughout the Continental United States, offers innumerable correspondence courses especially designed to qualify high school graduates for post-service education at a college level. In addition, all arms and services operate technical schools designed to train enlistees in one or more of hundreds of specialties needed to maintain the highly technical equipment of our modern Army.

Q. What are my chances of going overseas?

A. If you enlist for three years, you may select to serve in any overseas theater which has openings.

Q. Can I still choose the branch of service I want to serve in?

A. Yes. You can pick any branch which has quotas to be filled, if you enlist for three years.

Q. What are my prospects of obtaining a commission?

A. Officers Candidate School, The Aviation Cadet Program and the United States Military Academy are three ways in which you may as an enlisted man become a commissioned officer.

What to do after graduation

Choosing the right career to follow after high school days are over is a problem faced sooner or later by every girl in the senior class.

For many past graduates, telephone work has offered most of the things a girl looks for when seeking a place in the world: pleasant associates . . . clean, wholesome surroundings . . . high pay . . . regular increases and opportunities for advancement . . . paid vacations . . . the knowledge that the work itself is important and interesting.

There's a wide variety of opportunity for girls after graduation in many types of telephone work—as operators, stenographers, typists or clerks. The telephone company is "a friendly place to work."

COMMENCEMENT

"Setting out well is a quarter of the journey."

Ask Dad to tell you the best time for you to begin a life insurance saving plan. We'll wager that he wishes his insurance program had been started when he was your age.

The best time to begin any worth-while effort is now.

The Mark of a Champion . . .

WHEN a young man can face the business world with the same undaunted courage that he bucks the line in football, and can take the bumps that inevitably will come to him in business, and can keep his fighting spirit and keep smiling . . . then he has the mark of a champion. The world needs young men like this and the world will make way for them. The life insurance business needs such men, so why not prepare yourself for a career in the life insurance business. It's a business of opportunity for young men of ambition and vision.

Life Insurance for Safety . . and Security

A successful savings plan must provide a regular amount to be saved on a regular day for a specific purpose.

Life Insurance is the best plan yet devised to teach us the habit of saving and to keep us faithful to that habit. It is not an expense but a savings. It should be the first factor in everyone's program—the last to let go.

Life Insurance creates an estate immediately, which might otherwise never be acquired. Make sure of your estate by the purchase of life insurance while you are young.
